FEARLESS LACROSSE

Camp Description

Fearless lacrosse camp for girls is designed for girls who are enthusiastic about the game of lacrosse and are interested in improving their skills. The camp will give all players the opportunity to acquire the skills necessary to fulfill their goals and to reach their full potential. Every facet of the game is covered, teaching you the fundamentals and the skills to become an impact player. Stick skills, shooting, defensive concepts, 2v2, 3v3, and full field games play will be incorporated into a fun filled week of camp. Girls of all skill levels are encouraged to participate.

Camp Director

Jessica Morgan

A native of Baltimore, Md., Morgan played four years at the University of Virginia as a defender. She was named the National Player of the Week as a junior and helped UVA to an ACC championship that year. With Morgan's help, Virginia ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and she later garnered All-American honors, one of four Cavaliers to receive that merit. A 2007 graduate, Morgan has one national championship and three ACC titles to her name and was voted the eighth best African-American lacrosse player of all time. Morgan is a former member of the US Women's Lacrosse Team.
